2. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS/OPERATIONS REPORT

INTERNATIONAL FLEET

The dry bulk market expanded in volume in the first half of 2008-09 on the back of very strong demand for iron ore from China and increased volume of coal import from India. But the later part of the year was a roller coaster period for Dry Bulk Shipping. From an all time high of 11793 points on May 20, 2008, BDI fell 94% to an all time low of 663 points on December 5, 2008. Demand for ships nearly dried up in the 4th quarter of 2008. The meltdown in the world financial markets aggravated following the collapse of major financial institutions, bringing Dry Bulk Super Cycle to an abrupt end.

Iron Ore and Coal account for 70% of Dry Bulk Seaborne trade. 70% of these cargoes are bound for China, Japan and South Korea, with China leading the way as the primary driver. Global financial meltdown in October 2008 led to freezing of trade finance activities and lines of credit. This meltdown badly damaged confidence and trust within the system.

Strong demand for commodities was the justification given by owners for driving the order book for dry bulk vessels to the level of 72% of the current fleet. Dry Bulk Fleet was further boosted by conversion of tankers into very large ore carriers. With the sharp and sudden reduction in the seaborne trade of dry-bulk, some of the charterers have either re-delivered the ships to the owners or sought drastic downward revision in the charter hire rates.

CHOWGULE STEAMSHIPS LIMITED

COASTAL FLEET

There was a robust growth in the Asian economies till first half of 2008. The Indian economy was growing at a rate over 8% per annum. Major ports have been working to their full capacity. The Maritime Boards of various states have taken effective steps for development of small ports along the coast. The share of non major ports in cargo handling is increasing every year. However, the full potential of small and mid-size ports is still not exploited due to infrastructure constraints like rail and road connectivity, navigational channel, etc.

Freight earnings on coastal movement of cargo are still not satisfactory as the movement of cargo is seasonal and erratic in nature. There is a sizeable increase in the cost of operations in view of increased manpower cost. The Government has recognised difficulties faced by the coastal operators in complying with stringent statutory rules which are at present applicable to international shipping. D.G. Shipping came out with notification permitting certain categories of vessels to ply on the coast which do not require to comply with stringent regulation and hence achieving reduction in the operating cost. This change will help the growth of coastal shipping.

COMPANY'S PERFORMANCE

The performance of the Company for the financial year 2008-09 is satisfactory in terms of improvement in the freight earnings as well as net profit. The Total Income increased to Rs. 119.03 crores as against Rs. 94.95 crores in the previous year showing an improvement of 25%. The improved earnings were as a result partly of the higher freight rates and partly due to depreciation of the rupee. The Profit prior to financial charges, depreciation and taxes amounted to Rs. 82.13 crores as against Rs. 53.88 crores during the previous year registering a growth of about 52.43%. However, Net Profit after Tax was at Rs.23.23 crores as against Rs. 24.34 crores in the previous year showing a decline of 4% as compared to the previous year on account of provision for foreign currency translation difference of Rs. 22.38 Crores as against gain of Rs. 9.45 crores recorded in the previous year.

The Company followed the policy of a blend of short period and long period time charters, which presented opportunities for the Company to take advantage of strong freight rates prevailing during the year. During the year, one of the international vessels completed dry-docking.

On the coastal front, freight rates have continued to remain strong. All efforts are being made to improve the performance of the vessels and keep them operational for maximum number of days.

INDUSTRY REVIEW & FUTURE OUTLOOK

The multitude of wild cards contributed to the downward sliding dry freight market in 4th quarter 2008. The rate at which demand disappeared changed the sentiment from being super bullish to bearish.

The year 2009 will be challenging for shipping with increasing number of lay-ups, new building cancellations and charter party defaults. On a positive note, more than 70% of the order book is yet to commence construction and in the present scenario, part of the order may not get materialized. The last two quarters of 2008-09 have registered negative growth for the global economy on account of contraction of economies of the United States of America, Europe, United Kingdom and Japan. Alarmed by this development, Governments around the world responded by adjusting monetary policy and promising large fiscal outlays to jump start their respective economies. There will be time lag for economic recovery impacting the shipping markets. From all indications, it appears that the market will continue to be under pressure during the year 2009-10 with some volatility in the freight rates.

The challenge to ship owners will be to survive the down cycle which most likely will be a U-shaped recovery unless we see a significant decrease in vessel supply, scrapping increases and demand for cargo covers back to the fore. However, as we are in the process of finalising this report, there are indications of some recovery on the economic front and a general perception is that the worst is over. The picture is unfolding and it is still too early to make prediction in the matter.

As regards coastal shipping, the freight rates are expected to remain at a reasonable level due to the large size of domestic economy. Additionally, the steps which are being taken by State Governments will go a long way in boosting coastal shipping in India.

As a reflection of lower interest rate regime in the United States and the liquidity position in international markets, the LIBOR has remained subdued for some time. In view of booking of LIBOR, based on its prevailing lower rates and also due to the policy of accelerated loan repayments from its earnings followed by the Company, the interest costs for the Company are expected to be lower in the year 2009-10.

JAIGAD PORT PROJECT

Chowgule Ports & Infrastructure Private Limited (CPIPL), a company co-promoted by Chowgule Steamships Limited and Chowgule & Company Private Limited (CCPL) will be implementing the Jaigad Port Project. Apart from the development of a port, a ship repair infrastructure is also being developed as part of the said project. Both these activities would be undertaken by subsidiaries of CPIPL. The total outlay of the said projects is estimated at approximately Rs.600 Crores and the same will be funded by way of loan and equity capital. The Company, CCPL and its associate companies would be investing in the capital of CPIPL. With a view to facilitate such investment, the Company had obtained approval of the members pursuant to Section 372A read with Section 192A through postal ballot, the results of which were declared at the Annual General Meeting held on July 25, 2008.

CPIPL will shortly be filing the Detailed Project Report with Maharashtra Maritime Board as per schedule of implementation of the said projects. CPIPL is also exploring a possibility to forge an alliance with foreign entities having experience and expertise in port development and ship repair activities, which have shown keen interest. The alliance in any form with such entities will help CPIPL in acquiring domain knowledge in processes.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM

The Company has effective systems of internal controls, which are periodically reviewed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

GOVERNMENT POLICIES

The global economic meltdown has affected the Indian economy in all its spheres. As part of overall strategy to give boost to the economy, the Government would continue giving priority for development of overall infrastructure. This bodes well for coastal vessels trade.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

The industrial relations during the year were very cordial and there were no industrial disputes.

THREATS, RISKS & CONCERNS

Freight Risks: The Hire income is subject to freight rate risks and therefore the Company follows the policy of mixture of short period and long period time charter contracts with first class charters to mitigate volatility in freight rates.

Interest Rate Risk: With a view to avoid uncertainty in the interest rate, the necessary forward cover is taken at regular intervals.

Forex Risk: As major portion of the Company's revenues is generated from international business in the US Dollar terms, the same creates a natural hedge against foreign exchange exposures.

The Company reviews Rupee - US Dollar parity on regular basis to protect itself from currency fluctuation risks.

Counter Party Risks: The Company engages into charter contracts only with the reputed charters to avoid the risks to the freight earnings.

Government Policies: The Company regularly reviews the changes in the applicable government policies affecting operations of the Company.

Human Resources: There is a scarcity of floating staff. In view of outsourcing of crew management, the Company gets the benefit of having efficient and cost effective floating staff from the Ship Manager's pool.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

The statements, expressions, information given in this Management Discussion and Analysis Report describing the Company's objectives, projections, estimates, expectations or predictions may be deemed as forward looking statements. Actual results might differ substantially or materially from those expressed or implied. 5. SUBSIDIARIES

The total investment of the Company in the Share Capital of Chowgule Steamships Overseas Ltd. (CSOL), a wholly owned subsidiary, stands at US$ 9.2 million (same as previous year). During the year, CSOL, in terms of its expansion plan, signed contracts for acquisition of 5 handy size vessels in addition to the 2 vessels contracted for in the earlier years. Subsequently, in view of decline in the international freight market, CSOL has negotiated for reduction in purchase prices of these vessels.

The nature of the Company's business is such that it does not involve sale of goods. SCHEDULE 60i

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2009

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are prepared and presented under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India and the applicable Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006. The significant accounting policies adopted in the presentation of the Accounts are as under:

i. Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Fixed assets (other than buildings) are stated at purchase price and exchange differences arising on the conversion of foreign currency borrowings for the acquisition of ships from outside India at the year end date and exchange differences on the payment of those borrowings during the year are credited / debited to profit and loss account.

Buildings have been revalued on 31st March, 2002.

The Company depreciates its fleet of ships on a straight line basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. The cost of second hand ships and other capital additions thereto are depreciated with reference to their residual lives if such lives are lower than lives determined with reference to rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. Otherwise, rates prescribed in the said Schedule XIV are used. Other assets are depreciated on written down value basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Depreciation on buildings has been provided on revalued amount. The additional depreciation on revaluation is recouped from the revaluation reserve.

ii. Investments

Investments are either classified as current or long-term investments. Current investments are carried at lower of cost or market value. Long-term investments are carried at cost of acquisition, net of diminution in value, if any, which is other than temporary.

iii. Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is ascertained on a first-in-first-out basis.

iv. Unfinished Voyage

Unfinished voyages represent voyage charter earnings received, reduced by direct operating expenses, related to incomplete voyages as at the balance sheet date.

v. Revenue Recognition

Freight and demurrage earnings are recognised on a completed voyage basis. Time charter earnings are recognised in the year of accrual.

vi. Insurance Claims

Insurance claims for damages to ship's hull, machinery, etc., are being accrued in the year of acceptance of the claim and are based on technical considerations.

vii. Employee Benefits

i) Short Term

Short term employee benefits are recognised as an expense at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid over the period of services rendered by the employees to the Company.

ii) Long Term

The Company has both defined-contribution and defined-benefit plans, of which some have assets in special funds or securities. The plans are financed by the Company and in the case of some defined-contribution plans by the Company along with its employees.

a. Defined-contribution plans

These are plans in which the Company pays pre-defined amounts to separate funds and does not have any legal or informal obligation to pay additional sums. These comprise of contributions to the employees' provident fund, family pension fund and superannuation fund. The Company's payments to the defined-contribution plans are reported as expenses during the period in which the employees perform the services that the payment covers.

b. Defined-benefit plans

Expenses for defined-benefit gratuity plans are calculated as at the balance sheet date by independent actuaries in a manner that distributes expenses over the employee's working life. These commitments are valued at the present value of the expected future payments, with consideration for calculated future salary increases, using a discount rate corresponding to the interest rate estimated by the actuary having regard to the interest rate on government bonds with a remaining term that is almost equivalent to the average balance working period of employees.

iii) Other Employee Benefits

Compensated absences which accrue to employees and which can be carried to future periods but are expected to be encashed or availed in twelve months immediately following the year end are reported as expenses during the year in which the employees perform the services that the benefit covers and the liabilities are reported at the undiscounted amount of the benefits after deducting amounts already paid. Where there are restrictions on availing of encashment of such accrued benefit or where the availing or encashment is otherwise not expected to wholly occur in the next twelve months, the liability on account of the benefit is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method.

viii. Transactions in Foreign Currency

- a. Foreign currency transactions are recorded on initial recognition by applying the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction at the commencement of the month in which the transaction takes place, if it approximates the actual rate on the date of the transaction. Otherwise, the rates prevailing at the date of the transaction are used.
- b. As at balance sheet date:
 - i) foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate;
 - ii) non-monetary items that are carried at historical cost and denominated in foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction; and
 - iii) non-monetary items which are carried at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates that existed when the values were determined.
- c. Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting an enterprise's monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the period, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognised as income or as expenses in the period in which they arise.

ix. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets are capitalised as a part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.

x. Impairment of Assets

Consideration is given at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment of the carrying amount of the Company's fixed assets. If any indication exists, an asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of the assets exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is greater of the net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. Reversal of impairment loss is recognised immediately as income in the profit and loss account.

xi. Provisions and Contingencies

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes to the financial statement. A contingent asset is neither recognised nor disclosed.

xii. Taxes on Income

The Company's income taxes include taxes on the Company's taxable profits, fringe benefits tax, adjustment attributable to earlier periods and changes in deferred taxes. Valuation of all tax liabilities / receivables is conducted at nominal amounts and in accordance with enacted tax regulations and tax rates or in the case of deferred taxes, those that have been substantially enacted.

Deferred tax is calculated to correspond to the tax effect arising when final tax is determined. Deferred tax corresponds to the net effect of tax on all timing differences which occur as a result of items being allowed for income tax purposes during a period different from when they were recognised in the financial statements.

Deferred tax assets are recognised with regard to all deductible timing differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible timing differences can be utilised. When the Company carries forward unused tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is virtual certainty backed by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced by the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or a part of the aggregate deferred tax asset to be utilised.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are prepared and presented under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India and the applicable Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006. The significant accounting policies adopted in the presentation of the accounts are as under:

i. Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Fixed assets (other than buildings) are stated at purchase price and exchange differences arising on the conversion of foreign currency borrowings for the acquisition of ships from outside India at the year end date and exchange differences on the payment of those borrowings during the year are credited / debited to profit and loss account.

Buildings have been revalued on 31st March 2002.

The Company depreciates its fleet of ships on a straight line basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. The cost of second-hand ships and other capital additions thereto are depreciated with reference to their residual lives if such lives are lower than lives determined with reference to rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. Otherwise, rates prescribed in the said Schedule XIV are used. Other assets are depreciated on written down value basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Depreciation on buildings has been provided on revalued amount. The additional depreciation on revaluation is recouped from the revaluation reserve.

In the case of subsidiary companies, the depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset over its expected useful life, as follows:

Global Triumph Over 12.41 years straight line

ii. Investments

Investments are either classified as current or long-term investments. Current investments are carried at lower of cost or market value. Long-term investments are carried at cost of acquisition, net of diminution in value, if any, which is other than temporary.

iii. Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is ascertained on a first-in-first-out basis.

iv. Unfinished Voyage

Unfinished voyages represent voyage charter earnings received, reduced by direct operating expenses, related to incomplete voyages as at the balance sheet date.

v. Revenue Recognition

Freight and demurrage earnings are recognised on a completed voyage basis. Time charter earnings are recognised in the year of accrual.

vi. Bareboat Charges

Bareboat charges payable under bareboat charter agreements are charged against income on a straight line basis over the charter term.

vii. Insurance Claims

viii. Employee Benefits

i) Short Term

Short term employee benefits are recognised as an expense at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid over the period of services rendered by the employees to the Company.

ii) Long Term

The Company has both defined-contribution and defined-benefit plans, of which some have assets in special funds or securities. The plans are financed by the Company and in the case of some defined contribution plans by the Company along with its employees.

a) Defined-contribution plans

These are plans in which the Company pays pre-defined amounts to separate funds and does not have any legal or informal obligation to pay additional sums. These comprise of contributions to the employees' provident fund, family pension fund and superannuation fund. The Company's payments to the defined-contribution plans are reported as expenses during the period in which the employees perform the services that the payment covers.

b) Defined-benefit plans

Expenses for defined-benefit gratuity plans are calculated as at the balance sheet date by independent actuaries in a manner that distributes expenses over the employees' working life. These commitments are valued at the present value of the expected future payments, with consideration for calculated future salary increases, using a discount rate corresponding to the interest rate estimated by the actuary having regard to the interest rate on government bonds with a remaining term that is almost equivalent to the average balance working period of employees.

iii) Other Employee Benefits

Compensated absences which accrue to employees and which can be carried to future periods but are expected to be encashed or availed in twelve months immediately following the year end are reported as expenses during the year in which the employees perform the services that the benefit covers and the liabilities are reported at the undiscounted amount of the benefits after deducting amounts already paid. Where there are restrictions on availment of encashment of such accrued benefit or where the availment or encashment is otherwise not expected to wholly occur in the next twelve months, the liability on account of the benefit is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method.

ix. Transactions in Foreign Currency

- a. Foreign currency transactions are recorded on initial recognition by applying the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction at the commencement of the month in which the transaction takes place, if it approximates the actual rate on the date of the transaction. Otherwise, the rates prevailing at the date of the transaction are used.

- b. As at balance sheet date:
- i) foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate;
 - ii) non-monetary items that are carried at historical cost and denominated in foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction; and
 - iii) non-monetary items which are carried at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates that existed when the values were determined.
- c. Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting an enterprise's monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the period, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognised as income or as expenses in the period in which they arise.

x) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets are capitalised as a part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.

xi) Impairment of Assets

Consideration is given at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment of the carrying amount of the Company's fixed assets. If any indication exists, an asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of the assets exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is greater of the net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. Reversal of impairment loss is recognised immediately as income in the profit and loss account.

xii) Provisions and Contingencies

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes to the financial statement. A contingent asset is neither recognised nor disclosed.

xiii) Taxes on Income

The Company's income taxes include taxes on the Company's taxable profits, fringe benefits tax, adjustment attributable to earlier periods and changes in deferred taxes. Valuation of all tax liabilities / receivables is conducted at nominal amounts and in accordance with enacted tax regulations and tax rates or in the case of deferred taxes, those that have been substantially enacted.

Deferred tax is calculated to correspond to the tax effect arising when final tax is determined. Deferred tax corresponds to the net effect of tax on all timing differences which occur as a result of items being allowed for income tax purposes during a period different from when they were recognised in the financial statements.

Deferred tax assets are recognised with regard to all deductible timing differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible timing differences can be utilised. When the Company carries forward unused tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is virtual certainty backed by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced by the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or a part of the aggregate deferred tax asset to be utilised.
